

Challenge 5: Employee Photo Outfits

Instructions: Worker Bee Gym is a small fitness business with four employees, and they are preparing for a photoshoot to update their website and marketing materials. Each employee is allowed to choose their own fitness clothing, but the outfits need to coordinate by sticking to the brand colors of blue and white. Outfits should not match each other exactly, while still having a cohesive look for the team photos. Short sleeves are recommended to show off hard-earned muscles.

Each employee has a budget of $100 to choose their outfit, paid with the company credit card. The budget should cover a full outfit, and could include accessories. Employees may wear their own shoes.

- Employee 1: Sarah wears women's size medium. Her typical attire is leggings and a tank top.
- Employee 2: Jeffrey wears men's medium for tops and large for bottoms. He's easy going and likes adjustable waistbands.
- Employee 3: Lars wears men's medium. He likes moisture-wicking fabric when possible.
- Employee 4: Ada wears women's extra small. She likes hoodies.
